SANDHERR'S TRIPLE BREAKS UP A GAME

Colts Take Eleven-Inning Contest by Batting When Hits Counted.

VERBOUT IN GOOD TRIM

Truckers Scored All Their Runs by Bunching Bingles-Many Sensational Plays.

Sandherr's rap to the centre field fence in the eleventh inning of the game between Portsmouth and Richmond yesterday scored Titman and broke up what had been one of the most spectacular and hardest fought games seen here this season, Verbout allowed six hits, three of which were bunched in the sixth inning, and with a base on balls netted the visitors three runs. Foxen pitched classy ball, and under ordinary circumstances his team would be credited with a victory.

WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY.

JUST ONE SINGLE

There were spectacular plays in nearly every inning, and aside from these the game was featured by wonderful exhibitions of ficility by players on both sides. Schrader and McFarland, for the Truckers, and Wallaces and Sundierr, for the Cotts, were stars, McFarland's one-hand catch of Sandherr's line drive in the ninth inning was as pretty a play as has ever been pulled off here.

Started in to Win.

Lipe's men started in as winners.

Ison, the first man up, walked, and went to third on the manager's single. Wallace's sacrifice fly scored the run. Portsmouth did not get a man past first base in her first two turns at bat, but in the fourth Toner and Smith singled, and the former got to third when McFarland was purposely walked. Messit caught Toner off, third base, and Morehead's fly to Titman ended the chances for a run.

Richmond's second run came in the fourth and is due to Tilman's wönderful steal from third base to the plate. The right fielder walked, was sacrificed by Sandherr, and went to third when Schrader made a beautiful stop of Sieber's grounder, which would ordinarily have resulted in a hit. Titman, when nobedy—not even the spectators—was looking for it, slipped in home. Smith missed the ball, but the play had been clean.

Again in the fifth, Richmond added to Inglin telicd, and arwinced to second when Lipp was pussed. Knazer singled, and the talty came over. It seems ed in Portsme would surely go to Guilhence's nine. Guileen and Schrader sinselled, and the talty came over. It seems gled, and the talty came over. It seems ed in Portsme would surely go to Guilhence's nine. Pitcher Emerson and Catcher Port, neither of whom showed the necessary class, were released yesterday by Manager Lipe. Emerson pitched one game while here and showed up in very poor form. Port was brought here to fill a vacancy in the catching staff, while Kelfel was suffering with a bad hand. He is a very likely youngster, and perhaps has a great future before him in baseball.

Innings.

NORFOLK, VA., August 5.—Unable to find John Fox at any stage of the game, while hits were bunched on Loos in the first, and a hit, stolen base and costly error in the eighth gave the Tars the opening game with the Bugs by the score of 2 to 0.

The game was one of the prettiest of the season, and absolutely decided upon its merits. At no time after the first inning did Danville have a real chance to score. On the other hand, fast fielding saved Loos several times in close pinches. Fisher's playing cut off no less than three timely hits that would have meant runs for the Tars.

The batting of Seltz, Stafford and Bonner was among the star features of the game, the first two registering a couple of doubles apiece, while "Dutchy" led the batting by adding a single to his totals, not to mention the fact that he scored both of Norfolk's runs, as well as stealing a base.
